INSIDE

Power lines, computer monitors, appliances, cellular phones, radar and microwave towers all expose the public to EMFs.

In every EMFHR issue, experts evaluate the most significant EMF research in the context of the potential for human health effects.

EMF Health Report is the first newsletter to provide accurate and unbiased information on the latest EMF research and news in clear, nontechnical language.

New power projects, expanding wireless communications, and other evolving electronic technologies continue to raise recurring concerns about possible health hazards of EMF exposure. Each issue of EMF Health Report reveals important new EMF developments and provides expert perspectives on their significance to human health. EMF Health Report ...

- objectively surveys the ongoing public debate surrounding harmful effects from EMF exposure,
- evaluates and interprets the newest research on how EMFs interact with living things, and
- calls attention to pioneering research on potential EMF therapeutic applications.

EMF Health Report brings you the information you need to make informed decisions concerning EMF's impact on your office and home environment.
